

2009 Fort Lauderdale Reunion

We couldn't have asked for a nicer or more beautiful day for that matter than Saturday January 17th in Fort Lauderdale, FL. However, even though it was sunny outside, we had a lot of the afterglow inside our designated restaurant out on a pier in the middle of the harbor. We had a nice group meet and reflect on a vast number of years at camp over a host of decades. Hosted by the one and only (a significantly marvelous person) Julia Fraser (W'69-CCSC'81 + several other later stints), we were joined by Susan Schuyler Smith (W'53-'62), Karen Finklestein (W'70-'77), Caitlin Sullivan (CCSC'89-'99), John Van Leer (M'53-'55), Mike Horn (CCSC'87-'00), Whitney Rauschenbach (MDC'87-CCSC'00) and her friend Beth. We discussed a wide variety of things from the oceans (courtesy of John Van Leer) to the classroom (courtesy of Karen Finklestein) to decorating yachts (courtesy of Susan Schuyler Smith). It was a wonderful afternoon that almost didn't end.
