

2008 Florida Reunion

Heading south for the first time in a long time for a camp reunion proved to be a great opportunity to say hello to some of our Alumni in the far reaches of the United States. With the very able guidance from Julia Fraser (W'69-CCSC'81 + several other stints) we had a wonderful experience at Café Boulud in Palm Beach. While we didn't have a massive turnout per se, the quality of individuals was rather remarkable. Joining us were Karen Finklestein (W'70-'77), Jonathan Hagelstein (CCSC'89-'90), Mike Horn (CCSC'87-'00), Carl Rauschenbach (M'56-'68), Whitney Rauschenbach (CCSC'87-'00) and Tom Wright (M'62) with his wife Bonnie.

Photos

Figure 1: Hostess Julia Fraser with Henri showing off the first laptop CD show of Camp Monomoy in the 40's

Figure 2: Henri with Tom Wright (M'62). Tom lives in Clearwater, FL

Figure 3: Karen Finklestein (W'70-CCSC'77) and Darren Grant (CCSC'80-'89) discuss the glorious past at camp.

Figure 4: Whitney Rauschenbach (MDC'87-CCSC'08) and Jonathan Hagelstein (CCSC'89-'90) bookend Jen - a non-camper and friend of Whitney.

Figure 5: The elusive Carl Rauschenbach (M'56-'68) makes a rare and mysterious appearance.

Figure 6: Old RaftCo personel never die - the just drag their anchor away. Mike Horn (CCSC'87-'00) and Henri discuss high and low tide.