

2009 Denver Reunion

Just this past February 20th, our alumni bandwagon rumbled into the high altitudes of the Rockies looking for the Chisholm trail. What we found was a great western location in the thin airs of Denver that was to house our Denver Alumni Reunion. This was truly high octane at a high altitude. Our enormously enthusiastic hostess, Meghan Schmillen (CCSC'01-'06) guided us to the Forest Room 5 establishment for an evening of recollection and reaffirmation of camp as good and of camp is good. While no songs were sung per se, they were wafting about around us. Joining Meghan were Margi Tanis (CCSC'01-'05), Mary Barber Tanis (W'67-'68) with her husband Bill Tanis (M'60's), Jamie Bommaritto Daugherty (CCSC'00-'02) who along with several friends was participating in a wedding in Denver, Susan Mason (W'63-'70) whose daughter Julia Wedgle attends CCSC now, Nancy Tucker Thornton (W'56-'74), Colin Reid (CCSC'98-'04), Tim Sylvester (M'57-'58), Kyle Johnston (CCSC'02) and of course, me. Missing the event was Peyton "Pete" Perry (M'50's) with whom I had lunch the following day. It was a great event and one which we will gladly do again. Just need to get some boots and a big belt buckle.
